Day 2

After breakfast, check out from the hotel. Around 8:00 AM, you will be picked up at your hotel in Hanoi Old Quarters for a transfer to Ha Long Bay, the pride of the Gulf of Tonkin and a UNESCO World Heritage Site recognized in 1994 and 2006.

Upon arrival at the Cruise Port, you'll receive a warm welcome from the cruise staff and complete check-in for your overnight cruise, where you'll witness the magnificent beauty of the "Descending Dragon" bay, famous for its thousands of limestone formations and karst grottoes. Enjoy lunch onboard, followed by visits to the Grottos, opportunities for swimming or kayaking, floating village views, and close-up views of the islets.

Return to the cruise later in the afternoon for a cooking demonstration before dinner. Evening activities onboard are available, or you may relax at your leisure. Overnight stay on the cruise.

Please note:

The cruise program may vary depending on the cruise operator. An English-speaking guide will be stationed on board.

Day 3

We recommend waking up early to witness the dawn over the sea — a truly breathtaking sight. After breakfast, the cruise continues through more spectacular areas where each islet is uniquely named after its shape or resemblance, such as Sail Island, Fisherman's Head Rock, Butterfly Rock, and Turtle Islet. Check out of your room and enjoy brunch onboard as the cruise returns to the pier.

Disembark and transfer back to Hanoi by shuttle bus. Later, your driver will transfer you to Noi Bai Airport (without guide) for your evening flight to Ho Chi Minh City (air tickets excluded), also known as Saigon, Vietnam's most dynamic city.

Upon arrival, meet your local guide and transfer to the city center for hotel check-in. Overnight stay in Ho Chi Minh City.

Day 4

Breakfast at the hotel. You will be picked up from the designated point in District 1 between 07:30-08:00 AM for a morning city tour. Visit the Independence Palace (Reunification Palace), a significant historical landmark of the Vietnam War. Today, it functions as a museum and venue for official receptions.

Continue to admire the stunning French colonial architecture at the Notre Dame Cathedral (view from outside only, built between 1877 and 1883) and the historic Central Post Office — one of the city's most recognized landmarks. Next, visit the War Remnants Museum, which offers valuable insight into Vietnam's struggle for independence and the realities of the Vietnam War. Enjoy lunch with authentic Vietnamese cuisine at a local restaurant.

In the afternoon, proceed to the Cu Chi Tunnels — an extensive 200 km underground network used during the war, complete with living quarters, storage areas, weapons factories, field hospitals, command centers, and kitchens. After an introductory video, you'll have the chance to explore a short section of the tunnels to experience the tight spaces firsthand. Optional shooting range experience is available (at guests' own expense).

Return to Ho Chi Minh City in the evening. Overnight stay in Ho Chi Minh City.

Day 5

After breakfast, you will be picked up between 07:30-08:00 AM from the pick-up point in District 1 to begin your journey to My Tho, a peaceful town along the Mekong River.

Visit Vinh Trang Pagoda, dating back to the late 19th century. Then board a sampan for a cruise along the river, passing four beautiful islands: Dragon, Unicorn, Phoenix, and Tortoise. Stop at Unicorn Island for a countryside walk through orchards, enjoy tropical fruits, and listen to traditional folk music performed by local artists. Visit a fruit plantation, honey-bee farm, and a coconut candy workshop. Enjoy honey tea and sample local specialties before lunch at a local restaurant.

In the afternoon, take a cycling tour around Tan Thach village to meet local villagers and experience daily life in the Mekong Delta. For those who prefer, relaxing in a hammock with a cool breeze is also an option. Return to Ho Chi Minh City by late afternoon. Overnight stay in Ho Chi Minh City.

Day 7

After breakfast, visit Vinpearl Safari Phu Quoc — the largest wildlife conservation park in Vietnam and the only semi-wildlife zoo in the country. Board the safari bus for a tour through the 380-hectare park, where you can observe wild animals in natural habitats through large viewing windows. Enjoy a variety of animal shows (Safari closes at 2 PM daily; bus inside zoo area not included).

In the afternoon, explore VinWonders Phu Quoc — Vietnam's largest theme park featuring thrilling rides, waterpark slides, indoor games, live performances, musical fountains, 5D cinema, and much more.

Next, visit Grand World Phu Quoc, an 85-hectare complex inspired by European architecture, featuring the Venice River or Lake of Love. You may choose to enjoy a romantic gondola ride (at your own cost) to admire the elegant surroundings. Overnight stay in Phu Quoc.

Day 8

After breakfast, you will be picked up at 08:00 AM by SIC guide and vehicle for transfer to An Thoi Harbor. Board a canoe for your island-hopping adventure, visiting 12 small islets and 4 major islands of Phu Quoc:

Mong Tay Island (May Rut Ngoai): Known as the miniature Maldives of Vietnam with its pristine beauty, jade-blue waters, and white sandy beaches.

Hon Gam Ghi Island (Dam Ngang) or Hon Bom: Relax in crystal-clear water, snorkel among coral reefs, and admire unique rock formations.

May Rut Island: Chill out at the white sand lagoon and take memorable photos at Bali bird's nest, heaven's ladder, ocean net bed, and sun ring. Lunch at a local island restaurant.

For coral reef enthusiasts, sea-walking to explore coral parks (250 species) is available at your own expense.

In the afternoon, continue to Thom Island to enjoy both the theme park and water park. Later, board the Hon Thom cable car (approximately 25 minutes) for a scenic 8 km ride across the ocean, offering spectacular aerial views of Phu Quoc's natural beauty. Return to your resort and relax. Overnight stay in Phu Quoc.
