Day 2

Breakfast in the hotel. Explore Tromsø region and discover the different immaculate landscapes and sometimes you will find yourself flowing between walls of snow! Today you will visit the northernmost Polar park in the world, where you can meet the big predators of the Arctic: the lynx, wolf and wolverine; but also more docile animals like elk, reindeer, musk ox or the arctic fox. Continue to Narvik, the famous port city. Narvik is also known for its strategic location during the Second World War.

Overnight stay in Narvik

Note: We cannot guarantee all the animals above will come out to play, but if you are lucky you will see them ALL!

Day 4

Breakfast in the hotel. Today you will get to know the famous Lofoten Islands – a place of contrast, a natural wonder with distinctive magic. Along the way you'll see white sandy beaches, mountains and lakes, and iconic little fishing villages that have made the islands so famous. After exploring Lofoten, you will continue your journey towards Harstad. In the evening, you will head out on a Northern Lights chase with your tour escort who will do their best to bring you to the perfect location to witness this fantastic phenomenon.

Overnight stay in Harstad

Note: This is a natural occurrence that we are unable to predict – our guides are trained to investigate and search out best location for viewing – which may include long drives out of the city/town, to find location with minimum light pollution. Even then we cannot guarantee this phenomenon.
